

Steven J. Schueth (pronounced "Sheeth")
President

Steve Schueth is President of First Affirmative Financial Network, an independent Registered Investment Advisor that offers Sustainable Investment Solutions™ for socially conscious individual and institutional investors.

For over 20 years, Mr. Schueth has been a nationally recognized authority, consultant, and resource to the sustainable and responsible investment industry. He served as a Director of the Social Investment Forum (SIF) from 1992 to 2002—seven of those years as Chair and President of the SIF. He was with Calvert from 1989 to 1997 where he led a product development group that created the first global socially screened mutual fund in the U.S. and was intimately involved in launching four other new Calvert funds designed for socially conscious investors. As President of Calvert Distributors from 1994 to 1997, Mr. Schueth ran Calvert's sales organization and was responsible for the company's relationships with over 2,000 broker-dealer firms. In 1998, he was awarded the SRI Service Award by his industry colleagues.

Mr. Schueth was born and raised in Iowa where he began working in his father's hardware store at a very early age. With over 30 years in the financial services industry, his experience includes five years as a real estate broker and four years as Vice President of a real estate securities company. Prior to Calvert, he spent three years as Director of Development for The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania. He currently serves as a Director of the Alliance for Sustainable Colorado. Married over 30 years, he and his wife have two children and one grandchild, and live in Boulder, Colorado.

First Affirmative produces the annual SRI in the Rockies Conference for the sustainable and responsible investment (SRI) industry. The 21st annual SRI in the Rockies Conference will be November 18–21, 2010 at the JW Marriott Hill Country Resort & Spa in San Antonio, Texas.
